Dear Friends,

It was exactly 12 twelve years ago today that my life was changed forever when Hurricane Katrina ravaged my hometown of New Orleans, Louisiana.

Then, almost a year ago to the day, my new home of Baton Rouge, Louisiana was hit hard by flooding on a catastrophic scale.

It is with these memories weighing heavily on my mind that I express, on behalf of the National Black Prosecutors Association, our solidarity with the affected residents of Texas. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of those impacted by the flooding and devastation caused by Hurricane Harvey.

I encourage our membership to do what they can donate to relief efforts. The 501(c)(3) arm of our organization, the NBPA Foundation, will be collecting monetary donations to send to our member prosecutors in the areas hit hardest by this storm.

Please visit our website at <http://blackprosecutors.org/donate> to contribute.

Sincerely,

William Jorden
President
